Caulfield Grammar School is a co-educational day and boarding school with five Campuses – three Melbourne campuses, the Nanjing, China Campus and Yarra Junction Campus. Associated with the Anglican Church, it is well known for the provision of a broad, innovative learning programme for girls and boys from Kindergarten to University level. Teaching staff are increasingly specialising in learning areas and are supported by an extensive professional development programme.

Caulfield Grammar School is pleased to offer the W.S. Morcom Rural Boarding Scholarships to young women and men who would prosper from and contribute to our vibrant residential community. Several of the Scholarships are also specifically for students whose parents’ financial means do not currently allow them to send a child to an independent school. These Scholarships are offered for entry into our school and into the Boarding House in Years 9 – 11, 2015 at Caulfield Campus. The Scholarships apply for the Years of a Child’s Secondary Schooling.

W.S. Morcom was a member of the staff of Caulfield Grammar School for 50 years including a period as a member of the Resident Staff. As Chief of Staff and on occasion Acting Headmaster, he set high standards in the Academic Learning Programme, in sport and in the presentation and conduct of students. He was held in high regard by students, parents, staff members and those involved in Educational and Community Services organisations beyond the School.

The W.S. Morcom Rural Boarding Scholarships will be awarded to students who are able to demonstrate achievement in several fields of endeavour related to school life and who will therefore contribute strongly to the boarding community.

Scholarships will provide part remission of tuition fees and assistance in meeting the cost associated with boarding.

Morcom House, Caulfield Grammar School has been a boarding school since its foundation in 1881, offers accommodation for 90 boarding students. It is a co-educational residential setting where great importance is placed on students achieving their academic potential, fostering a sense of personal responsibility and providing a warm, friendly and secure environment that closely mirrors home life. Low staff to student ratios and strong links with the day school, ensure that the boarders’ pastoral care needs are met. Students have the opportunity for participation in music, drama, sport, community service and various leadership programmes. The school’s extensive academic and recreational facilities, when combined with the wonderful suburban location, provides the students with a wealth of opportunity to pursue current and new interests.

Initial applications for the W.S. Morcom Rural Boarding Scholarships should be made by completing the attached forms, which should then be returned to the Scholarship Office, Caulfield Grammar School, PO Box 610, Elsternwick Vic 3185, together with a copy of the most recent school report and any additional information to support the students application. Applications close on Wednesday 4th June, 2014.

Interviews will then be conducted with short listed candidates at the end of Term 2 and beginning of Term 3, 2014 and awards will be offered shortly thereafter.
